How do I do this?

You have a picture from history, and have been given the general date. This is a visual example of a time that was considered important enough to be remembered.

1. Predict what you think this photo is about (two paragraphs, please).
2. Go into the computer lab and look up the issue, and give us a better and more informative description of what the photo may be about (two paragraphs again)
3. Come up with five questions that would be a good way to continue learning about this issue/moment
